FAMILY WINERY
NAPA VALLEY

Cheers to Winter!

We are so excited to share the following wines with you.

2021 Rosato: Strawberry and pomegranate with crisp concentration.

2019 Chardonnay, Wild Yeast: Butterscotch, pear and hints of melon.

2018 Grenache, Sierra Foothills: Floral and spicy with notes of raspberry.

2018 Pinot Noir, Sierra Mar Vineyard: Dark fruit, violet and toasty oak.

2019 Malbec, Stagecoach Vineyard: Earthy with notes of tobacco and plum.

2019 Merlot, Stagecoach Vineyard: Bright berries with spice and a long finish.

Updates from Oakville

Winter Update:

2022 is here! Late fall and early winter brought an abundance of rain and moisture to the valley, and it has been refreshing and rejuvenating to see the ground cover return to a vibrant green.

Visiting Us:

If you're looking to plan your next visit, winter is a lovely time to visit. Hotels have more availability than the summer and fall months, the mustard is beginning to bloom, and we have plenty of room in our newly renovated tasting spaces to accommodate groups of varying sizes. Contact wineclub@minerwines.com to book your next visit!

Rosato is on its way!

We are thrilled to announce an earlier-than-usual release of our Rosato! Our bright and vibrant rosé of Sangiovese is a staff favorite, and we are so pleased to provide you with first access to this beloved release. We have limited quantities this year, so be sure to reach out to wineclub@minerwines.com to reorder if this wine is one of your favorites.

Cheers and all the best in the new year!
